

Assess a Fictional Character's Dispositions

SUITABLE FOR YEARS
3 - 8

STUDENT: _____

CLASS: _____

MOVIE / BOOK TITLE: _____ CHARACTER: _____

Marking scale: 0 to 5 (0 = No evidence, 5 = Outstanding)

| Disposition | | Score | Why did you give the character that score? Give examples from the story to justify. |
|---------------------------------|--|--------------|--|
| Open-minded | The character is open to getting new and different ideas and will think about the ideas and opinions of others. | | |
| Flexible | The character is able to look at a problem from many perspectives and will change their plan when unexpected problems arise. | | |
| Risk-taker | The character likes to take on new challenges and is not afraid of making mistakes. | | |
| Resourceful | The character finds clever ways to overcome difficulties and will improvise if they don't have the resources they need. | | |
| Patient & Persistent | The character takes time to elaborate their ideas and doesn't give up easily. | | |
| Ubiquitous Learner | The character believes that creating and learning can take place anywhere, anyhow, anytime. | | |
| Reflective | The character reflects on, and identifies, what they have learned from the experience. | | |