

CALLING CAPTAIN DISPOSITION

Skit 1

- Little Child: Help... Help! (use phone) 7-6-5-4-3-2-1
Captain Disposition? I'm in trouble. Please come and rescue me!
- Cpt Dis: You called? What seems to be the problem?
- Little Child: I forgot my lunch! I left it at home on the kitchen bench.
- Cpt Dis: Don't worry. You can solve your problem all by yourself. All you need are some of my superpowers. You are now... Open-minded...! Flexible...! and Resourceful! ...!
- Little Child: Hey, maybe I can come up with an idea to solve my problem.
- Cpt Dis: That's it! Now you're being open-minded.
- Little Child: I know. I could look in the rubbish bin for food that's been thrown away.
- Cpt Dis: Umm... ok... Any other ideas?
- Little Child: I could pretend I'm a pigeon and pick up crumbs off the ground!
- Cpt Dis: Ok... I think you need to be a flexible thinker and change your plan.
- Little Child: I know! I have an apple in my bag that I didn't eat yesterday. I can have that for my recess, and then I can eat today's recess at lunch time!
- Cpt Dis: Great idea! Now you're being resourceful!
- Little Child: Thanks Captain Disposition!
- Cpt Dis: Keep on using your new superpowers. Oh, and if you need any more superpowers, you know my number.
